Power of arrest

34. (1) The Mayor or any officer duly authorized by the Mayor may arrest without warrant any person who commits in his presence or whom he reasonably believes to have committed any offence under these By-laws -

(a) if the name or address of the person is unknown to him and the person declines to give his name and address; or

(b) if there is reason to doubt the accuracy of his name or address.

(2) A person arrested under these By-laws shall be detained and shall be brought before a Magistrate's Court within twenty-four hours unless his name and address are sooner ascertained.

Power of seizure and forfeiture

35. (1) If the Mayor or any officer duly authorized by the Mayor has reason to believe that any person has committed an offence under these By-laws, he may seize and detain any motor vehicle, item, tool, instrument, machinery, equipment or other thing whatsoever used or reasonably suspected of having been used in the commission of an offence.

(2) All motor vehicles, items, tools, instruments, machinery, equipment or other things whatsoever liable to seizure under these By-laws shall be liable to forfeiture provided that the Mayor or any officer duly authorized by the Mayor may temporarily release such motor vehicle, item, tool, instrument, machinery, equipment or other things to the owner of the same on security being furnished to his satisfaction that such motor vehicle, item, tool, instrument, machinery, equipment or other things shall be surrendered to him on demand or to produce it before a Court of competent jurisdiction provided further that if there be no prosecution with regard to anything seized under these By-laws, such motor vehicle, item, tool, instrument, machinery, equipment or other things shall be taken and deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of one calendar month from the date of seizure unless claim thereto is made before the date.

Sabah LawNet

(3) Any person asserting that he is the owner of any motor vehicle, goods or thing liable to forfeiture under By-law 35(2) and that it is not liable to forfeiture may personally or by his agent authorized in writing give written notice to the Mayor that he claim the same provided that any such application shall be made before the expiration of one calendar month from the date of seizure.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in these By-laws, if anything seized under these By-laws is subject to speedy and natural decay or deterioration, the Mayor or any officer duly authorized by the Mayor may sell the thing and shall thereafter deal with the proceeds of such sale as he would have dealt with such thing had it not been sold.

(5) All things forfeited shall be delivered to the Mayor or any officer duly authorized by the Mayor and shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance or any other law for the time being in force.

Compounding of offences

36. (1) The Mayor may compound any offence committed by any person under these By-laws by making a written offer to the person to compound the offence upon payment by that person of a sum of money not exceeding five thousand ringgit.

(2) An offer under paragraph (1) may be made at any time after the offence has been committed, but before any prosecution for it has been instituted.

(3) Where the amount specified in the offer is not paid within the time specified in the offer, or within such extended period as may be granted by the mayor, prosecution for the offence may be instituted at any time thereafter against the person to whom the offer was made.

(4) Where an offence has been compounded under paragraph (1), no prosecution shall thereafter be instituted in respect of such offence against the person to whom the offer to compound was made.

Penalty

37. Any person who contravenes any provision of these By-laws shall be guilty of an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not less than five thousand ringgit and not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both, and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding five thousand ringgit for every day or part thereof during which such offence is continued.
