

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE, 1961
(No. 11 of 1961)

KENINGAU DISTRICT COUNCIL
(CONTROL OF ANIMAL) BY-LAWS, 1981
(G.N.L. 22 of 1982)

In exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 50 of the Local Government Ordinance, 1961, the Keningau District Council has made the following By-laws:-

Title and commencement.

1. These by-laws may be cited as the Keningau District Council (Control of Animal) By-laws, 1981, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1982.

Interpretation.

2. In these By-laws: —

"Council" means the Keningau District Council;

"animal" includes buffalo, horse, pony, pig, goat, cattle, sheep, and any other animal which may be specified from time to time by the Council.

Application and grant of permit for animal keeping.

3. (1) No person shall keep any animal in any area within the Council's jurisdiction except in accordance with a permit granted by the Council.

(2) An application for a permit shall be made in writing and shall specify the locality where the applicant proposes to keep the animal.

(3) The Council may, in its absolute discretion, grant or refuse a permit or grant a permit subject to such conditions as it thinks fit.

Prevention of nuisance.

4. (1) If in the opinion of the Council the keeping of any animal on any land has become a nuisance or injurious to health, the Council may by notice require the owner or occupier of such land within a period to be specified in the notice to do all or any of the following :—

- (i) to reduce the number of animals kept thereon;
- (ii) to have the land properly fenced;
- (iii) to keep such animals continuously penned;
- (iv) to take such other action as the Council deems necessary to minimise the likelihood of nuisance or injury to health.

(2) The owner or occupier of such land to whom a notice is given shall without unnecessary delay comply with such notice.

Cancellation of permit.

5. The Council may cancel or suspend a permit if the holder of such permit:—

- (a) is convicted of any offence under these By-laws; or
- (b) has failed to observe any conditions imposed by the Council in such permit.

Stray animal to be impounded.

6. (1) It shall be lawful for the Council or any person to seize any animal found straying on the road, street or thoroughfare or trespassing on any ground or property of any person or of the Government and to confine such animal in any pound established under by-law 7 of these By-laws.

(2) If any animal so impounded shall not be redeemed by the owner thereof within fourteen days after such animal shall have been impounded, by paying to the pound keeper all pound fees due, such animal shall be sold by public auction by order of the District Officer and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof and the pound fees due, shall be paid to the owner of the animal upon application made by him thereof to the Council. In default of such balance being claimed within three months after the sale, it shall be retained by the Council.

(3) Any person taking any animal out of a pound without the knowledge and consent of the pound-keeper shall be liable to a penalty prescribed under by-law 11 of these By-laws.

Pounds to be established.

7. Pounds shall be established at such places as the Council may deem suitable.

Pound keeper.

8. (1) The keeper in charge of each pound shall be appointed by the Council.

(2) Every such pound keeper shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code [F.M.S. Cap. 45].

Pound Fees.

9. The following pound fees are prescribed —

	Per head/per day or part of a day
	$
(a) Buffalo, cattle, horse, and pony	10.00
(b) Goat and sheep	5.00
(c) Pig	8.00
(d) Other animals	1.00

Liability of owner or person in charge for damage done.

10. (1) The owner or person in charge of the straying animal shall be liable for all damage done by the same arising from such animal not properly penned or tethered as the case may be, or otherwise kept under control.

(2) A certificate by the Chairman of the Council or any person deputed by him in writing for such purpose, shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of damage done.

Penalty.

11. Any person contravening or attempting to contravene any of the provisions of these By-laws for breach whereof no penalty is otherwise provided shall be liable upon conviction to a fine of five hundred ringgit and to imprisonment for six months.

Dated at Keningau, this 27th day of November, 1981.

UDIN DULLAH,
Chairman,
Keningau District Council.

I approve the foregoing By-laws.

Dated at Kota Kinabalu, this 30th day of November, 1981.
