Entitlement to compensation.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, every entitled officer shall, on the operative date or, in the case of a person who becomes an entitled officer, after that date, on which he becomes an entitled officer, become entitled to compensation, which shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph and at each assessment shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of his annual pensionable emoluments on the date taken for calculation by the appropriate factor and the resulting amount, or twelve thousand pounds, whichever is the less, shall be the amount to which he is entitled:

Provided that an officer seconded to the service of another government or authority on the date taken for calculation shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be deemed to have such annual pensionable emoluments on that date as he would have had on that date if he had not been so seconded but had continued until that date to hold office in the public service that he was holding immediately before his secondment and had been granted all increments and other increases of salary for which he would thus have been eligible.

(2) The compensation of each entitled officer under this paragraph shall be provisionally assessed as soon as is reasonably practicable after the operative date or, in the case of a person who becomes an entitled officer after that date, as soon as is reasonably practicable after that person becomes an entitled officer, and for that purpose the date to be taken for calculation shall be the operative date or, in the case of a person who becomes an entitled officer after the operative date, the date on which that person became an entitled officer.

(3) The compensation under this paragraph of each person who is serving as an entitled officer shall be provisionally re-assessed upon each anniversary of the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, and shall be finally assessed upon his retirement or death while still serving as an entitled officer, and for the purposes of this subparagraph the date to be taken for calculation shall be such date (not being earlier than the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph or later than the date upon which his compensation is provisionally re-assessed or finally assessed, as the case may be) as is most advantageous in relation to the officer.

(4) Each person who is serving as an entitled officer shall be entitled to additional compensation, notwithstanding that the additional compensation to which he is entitled under this subparagraph when added to the compensation to which he is entitled under the preceding provisions of this paragraph exceeds twelve thousand pounds, to be assessed on each occasion upon which his compensation is re-assessed under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and calculated at each assessment by multiplying by decimal point 10 his annual pensionable emoluments for the period, reckoned in completed years and months, beginning at the date by reference to which his compensation was last assessed and ending at the date by reference to which the next following assessment of his compensation is made:

Provided that any period of leave of absence for which such person is eligible and which is leave of absence in respect of a tour of duty which terminated before the operative date and the enjoyment of which has been deferred, shall not be taken into account in reckoning the period referred to in this subparagraph.

Provided that if an entitled officer gives such an undertaking after a payment has been made to him under this subparagraph, but not later than twelve months after the operative date, he shall be paid as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date on which he gave that undertaking, an amount which when added to the amount already paid to him equals the amount he would have been paid under this sub-paragraph if he had given that undertaking before any payment had been made to him under this subparagraph.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, a further payment shall be made to every person who has become entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule and who has not already received the whole of that compensation (whether that person is serving as an entitled officer or has retired) upon each anniversary of the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed under subparagraph (2) of that paragraph, which –

- (a) in the case of a payment made upon the first, second, third or fourth anniversary, shall be an amount equal to the appropriate fraction of the balance of compensation then outstanding; and
- (b) in the case of a payment made upon the fifth or any later anniversary, shall be an amount equal to the balance of compensation then outstanding:

Provided that –

- (i) where the balance of compensation outstanding upon the first, second, third or fourth anniversary exceeds five hundred pounds and, in the case of an officer to whom subparagraph (1) (a) of this paragraph applies, where that balance, if added to the amount of compensation already paid under this paragraph would exceed two thousand pounds, an amount equal to the appropriate fraction of that balance or four hundred pounds, whichever is the greater, shall be paid;
- (ii) where the balance so outstanding is less than five hundred pounds, or, in the case of an officer to whom subparagraph (1) (a) of this paragraph applies, where that balance exceeds five hundred pounds but would not, if added to the amount of compensation already paid under this paragraph, exceed two thousand pounds, an amount equal to that balance shall be paid.

(3) Each person who is serving as an entitled officer shall be paid on each anniversary of the date in relation to which his compensation under paragraph 2 (2) of this Schedule was assessed, the additional compensation to which he is then entitled under subparagraph (4) of that paragraph.

(4) Whenever –

- (a) a person who has become entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule but who has not already received the whole of that compensation (and in the case of an entitled officer whether he is still serving as such or has already retired) attains the age of fifty-five years or, in the case of a person who is or was when he retired a judge, sixty-two years, or dies before attaining that age;
- (b) an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 retires in the circumstances described in paragraph 4 (4) (a), (c) or (d) of this Schedule before he has attained that age or is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 4 (4) (b) of this Schedule; or
- (c) an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule retires in any other circumstances before he has attained that age but on or after the fifth anniversary of the operative date, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled shall be paid to him or, if he is dead, to his personal representatives.

(5) Whenever an entitled officer, who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of the Schedule, is required before attaining the age of fifty-five years to retire –

- (a) in the circumstances described in paragraph 5 or paragraph 6 of this Schedule, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled under that paragraph shall be paid to him –
 - (i) if notice requiring him to retire is given to him while he is engaged upon a tour of residential service, before his departure from North Borneo; or
 - (ii) if such notice is given to him while on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service, as soon as possible after the date upon which such notice is given to him;
- (b) in the circumstances described in paragraph 7 of this Schedule, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 shall be paid to him as soon as possible after the date upon which notice requiring him to retire is given to him.

(6) The State Secretary may direct that instead of any payment being made to the personal representatives of a deceased person payment shall be made to one of the dependants of the deceased or to two or more of those dependants in such proportions as the State Secretary may think fit.

Provided that in the case of a deceased person having assigned the whole or part of the compensation due to him under this Schedule to another person the balance outstanding of the compensation at the date of his death shall, to the extent to which it has been assigned by him, be paid to that other person.

(7) Whenever any payment of compensation is made under or in the manner prescribed by subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, interest at the rate of five per centum per annum shall accrue from day to day during the period beginning at the date by reference to which that compensation was calculated and ending at the date of the next following assessment of compensation under any of the provisions of this Schedule upon any part of that compensation that did not become payable under this Schedule when the earlier assessment was made and that interest shall be paid in the manner and at the same time and place as that part of the compensation which is payable following the next assessment of compensation.

(2) An entitled officer who has given notice of his intention to retire under this paragraph on any date may, with the consent of the appropriate authority, withdraw the notice at any time before that date.

(3) No entitled officer shall retire under this paragraph without the permission of the Public Service Commission if the appropriate authority certifies that disciplinary proceedings are being taken against the officer and those proceedings might lead to his dismissal.

(4) An entitled officer –

- (a) who is permitted to retire by reason of injury or ill-health;
- (b) who is required to retire on or after his attainment of any age prescribed by law;
- (c) who is required to retire in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the part of the public service to which he belongs by which greater economy or efficiency may be effected;
- (d) who is required to retire in the public interest; or
- (e) in the case of a woman officer, who is required to retire upon her marriage; shall be deemed to have retired under this paragraph.

(5) In the case of the retirement of an entitled officer in pursuance of a notice given under subparagraph 91) of this paragraph, he shall be provided by the Government of the State with such passages and baggage facilities as he would have been entitled to under the scheme entitled "The Scheme of Retirement Benefits for members of Her Majesty's Overseas Civil Service and for Officers designated under the Overseas Service (North Borneo) Agreement, 1961", if he had retired in pursuance of a notice given by him under that scheme of his election to retire from the public service.

(6) The provisions of paragraph 5 of this Schedule shall apply in the case of the retirement of an entitled officer who is required to retire in the circumstances described in subparagraph 94) (b) of (c) of this paragraph as they apply in the case of the retirement of an officer in the circumstances described in that paragraph.

Compulsory retirement.

5. The provisions of this Schedule shall apply to an entitled officer required to retire under Article 57 of the Constitution of the State of Sabah as if he were an entitled officer retiring under this Schedule:

Provided that –

- (a) in the case of the retirement under that Article of an officer who is on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service –
 - (i) he shall, if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible on the date upon which he is given notice under that section requiring him to retire is less than six months, be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of such leave of absence from that date up to six months;

- (ii) he shall be provided by the Government of the State with a passage to North Borneo for his own use as if he were returning to the State for a further tour of residential service, and such passage (if he returns to the State) and such baggage facilities as an officer of a similar status is entitled to under the General Orders of that Government when retiring from the public service, having attained the age of fifty-five years and having completed a final tour of residential service; and
- (b) in the case of the retirement under that Article of an officer in any other circumstances –
- (i) he shall not be required to depart from the State on leave of absence pending his retirement until the expiration of a period of six months from the date upon which he was given notice under that section requiring him to retire;
 - (ii) he shall be provided by the Government of the State with such passages and baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under the General Orders of that Government when retiring from the public service, having attained the age of fifty-five years and having completed a final tour of residential service;
 - (iii) he shall, if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible is less than six months, be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of such leave of absence pending his retirement up to six months.

Compulsory retirement after secondment.

6. Where an entitled officer, having been seconded to the public service of the Federation and that secondment having been terminated, is required to retire upon the termination of his secondment and the Public Service Commission certifies that his secondment was terminated to enable a local candidate or officer to be appointed to the office to which he was seconded and that no suitable employment in the public service was available, the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Schedule shall apply to that entitled officer as if he were an entitled officer required to retire under Article 57 of the Constitution of the State of Sabah.

Retirement to facilitate constitutional changes.

7. (1) The provisions of this Schedule shall apply to an entitled officer who is required to retire to facilitate the introduction of constitutional changes as if he were an entitled officer retiring under this Schedule:

Provided that –

- (a) he shall be paid before his departure on leave pending retirement, or as soon as possible thereafter, a disturbance grant equal to one-quarter of his annual pensionable emoluments at the date of his retirement;
- (b) if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible on the date of his departure on leave pending retirement is less than six months, he shall be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of pensionable leave of absence from that date up to six months; and
- (c) he shall be provided by the Government of North Borneo with such passages and baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under the General Orders of that Government when retiring from the public service, having attained the age of fifty-five years and having completed a final tour of residential service.

(2) If any dispute arises as to whether or not an officer has for the purposes of this paragraph been required to retire to facilitate the introduction of constitutional changes it shall be referred to the Public Service Commission for decision and their decision shall be final.

Grant of pensions and gratuities to entitled officers.

8. (1) This paragraph applies to entitled officers who are the substantive holders of offices, being pensionable offices for the purposes of the appropriate law.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 16 and 17 of this Schedule, an officer to whom this paragraph applies, on his retirement under this Schedule, may be granted at his option (such option to be exercised before the date of retirement or, in the case of an officer to whom paragraph 4 (4) of this Schedule applies, within one month after that date) either –

- (a) a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law;
- (b) a reduced pension equal to such fraction as he may desire of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law (not being in the case of an officer who retires within twelve years of the operative date, less than the permitted fraction) together with a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the remaining fraction of that pension multiplied by the appropriate factor;
- (c) a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law, or a fraction thereof, multiplied by the appropriate factor, but so that no such gratuity shall exceed that resulting from an annual pension of three hundred pounds multiplied by the appropriate factor and, where the gratuity equals a fraction of the annual amount of that pension multiplied by the appropriate factor, a reduced pension equal to the difference between that fraction and such annual amount or that fraction and three hundred pounds, whichever is the less; or
- (d) in the case of an officer who retires not less than twelve years after the operative date, a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law multiplied by the appropriate factor.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph an officer shall be deemed to be eligible for the grant of a pension under the appropriate law –

- (a) notwithstanding that he may have retired before attaining the age specified in the appropriate law as qualifying him for the grant of a pension; and
- (b) notwithstanding that he may not have completed at the date of his retirement the period of qualifying services required by the appropriate law to render him eligible for the grant of a pension.

(4) Where an officer to whom this paragraph applies retires by reason of ill-health in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension the provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law included to that additional pension.

(5) Where an officer to whom this paragraph applies retires by reason of injury or in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the part of the public service to which he belongs by which greater economy or efficiency may be affected in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension, the provision of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law did not include references to that additional pension.

(6) For the purposes of this paragraph the amount of the pension that an officer who is required to retire under paragraph 4 (4) (b) or (c) or paragraph 5, 6 or 7 of this Schedule may be granted under the appropriate law shall be calculated as if his annual pensionable emoluments on the date by reference to which his compensation is finally assessed under paragraph 2 of this Schedule were the emoluments to be taken for computing his pension under the appropriate law.

(7) If an officer has not exercised the option conferred upon him by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph within the period in which is required to be exercised he shall be deemed to have opted for the grant of a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law.

(8) In this paragraph –

“the appropriate factor” in relation to an officer means the factor obtained from Table III of the Annex to this Schedule that is appropriate to the age of that officer at his retirement reckoned in completed years and completed months;

“the permitted fraction” –

(a) in relation to an officer who retires within one year of the operative date, means three-quarters; and

(b) in relation to an officer who retires within not less than one year of the operative date, means such fraction as is obtained by subtracting one-sixteenth for each complete year of his pensionable service after the operative date from three quarters:

Provided that in reckoning for the purposes of this subparagraph the years of pensionable service of an officer who is granted leave of absence pending his retirement, leave of absence granted in respect of service prior to the operative date enjoyment of which had on the operative date been deferred shall not be taken into account.

Special gratuity for certain officers.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 16 and 17 of this Schedule, where any entitled officer to whom Part III of the Schedule to the Pensions Ordinance of North Borneo applies retires under this Schedule and is granted by any government or other authority that is a scheduled government for the purposes of that Part both a pension and a gratuity, having elected to receive that pension and that gratuity in lieu of a pension of greater amount, he may be granted (in addition to any gratuity that may be granted to him under paragraph 8 of this Schedule) a gratuity equal to the amount (if any) by which the amount produced by –

(a) subtracting the annual amount of the pension granted to him by the scheduled government from the annual amount of the pension that would have been granted to him by that government had he not elected to receive the gratuity granted to him by the scheduled government; and

- (b) by multiplying the resulting amount by the appropriate factor, exceeds the amount of the gratuity granted to him by the scheduled government.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 16 and 17 of this Schedule, where an entitled officer to whom the provisions of the Oversea Superannuation Scheme regulations apply retires under this Schedule and is granted under these Regulations a pension and a lump sum he may be granted a gratuity equal to the amount produced by subtracting that lump sum from the sum arrived at by multiplying by the appropriate factor one-quarter of the annual amount of the pension he would have received if his pension had been calculated under the Pensions Ordinance of North Borneo.

- (3) In this paragraph "the appropriate factor" has the same meaning as in paragraph 8 of this Schedule.

Special gratuity on the death of certain officers.

10. (1) Where an entitled officer dies and it is lawful under the provisions of the appropriate law for a gratuity to be granted to his personal representatives there shall be granted to his personal representatives either that gratuity or a gratuity equal to the maximum gratuity which could have been granted to that officer under the provisions of paragraph 8 of this Schedule, if he had retired under the Schedule at the date of his death, whichever is the greater:

Provided that, in the case of an officer to whom Part III of the Schedule to the Pensions Ordinance of North Borneo applied, in respect of that proportion of the pension for which he would have been eligible, if he had retired under this Schedule at the date of his death, and which is attributable to his pensionable service otherwise than in the public service the provisions of paragraph 8 (2) (d) of this Schedule shall not apply and the permitted fraction referred to in that paragraph shall not be less than three-quarters.

(2) For the purposes of the proviso to subparagraph (1) of this Paragraph the proportion of a pension which is attributable to the pensionable service of an officer otherwise than in North Borneo shall be that proportion of the pension for which the officer would have been eligible if his pensionable service had been wholly in the North Borneo as the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his pensionable service otherwise than in North Borneo bears to the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments throughout his pensionable service.

(3) Where an entitled officer to whom the Oversea Superannuation Scheme Regulations apply dies and a gratuity is payable to his personal representatives under those Regulations, there shall be granted to his personal representatives a gratuity equal to the amount produced by subtracting the amount of the gratuity payable under those Regulations from the amount of the gratuity payable under those Regulations from the amount of the maximum gratuity which could have been granted to that officer under paragraph 9 of this Schedule, if that paragraph and the Pensions Ordinance of North Borneo had applied to him and he had retired under this Schedule at the date of his death.

(4) The State Secretary may direct that instead of being paid to the personal representatives, any gratuity payable under subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall be paid to one of the dependants of the deceased or to be divided among any two or more of those dependants in such proportions as the State secretary may think fit.

Entitled officer re-appointed to U.K. service.

11. (1) This paragraph applies to an entitled officer who has retired under this Schedule and –

- (a) who was transferred to the public service from pensionable employment under the Government of the United Kingdom in a public office as defined by the Superannuation Act, 1892; and

- (b) who not later than twelve months after he retired has (other than as the result of a competition conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners of the United Kingdom) returned to such pensionable employment.

(2) A person to whom this paragraph applies shall cease to be entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, but shall be entitled to compensation of an amount equal to –

- (a) one-half of the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule; or
- (b) the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 12 of this Schedule having been transferred to the pensionable employment referred to in subparagraph (1) (b) of this paragraph on the date on which he retired, whichever is the less.

(3) If the provisions of this paragraph become applicable to any officer his compensation shall forthwith be re-assessed, and –

- (a) if the amount of compensation as so re-assessed exceeds the amount he has already received under paragraph 3 of this Schedule, the balance of compensation then outstanding shall be paid, together with any unpaid interest that has accrued under that paragraph before the re-assessment in the manner prescribed by paragraph 3 (2) of this Schedule for the payment of compensation assessed under paragraph 2 of this Schedule; or
