(2) If any animal so impounded shall not be redeemed by the owner thereof within fourteen days after such animal shall have been impounded, by paying to the pound-keeper all pound fees due, such animal shall be sold by public auction by order of the District Officer and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof and the pound fees due shall be paid to the owner of the animal upon application being made by him thereof to the Council. In default of such balance being claimed within three months after the sale, it shall be retained by the Council.
